

Faculty of Law and Administration

University of Gdańsk

University
of Gdańsk

Gdańsk

The city located in the center of Europe, directly at the sea, impresses not only with its location but also with its cultural heritage. The city has been associated with trade for centuries and is open to visitors and unrestricted exchange of ideas.

The unique structure of Tricity means that by studying in historical Gdansk, students gain everything that intimate Sopot and modern Gdynia also have to offer.

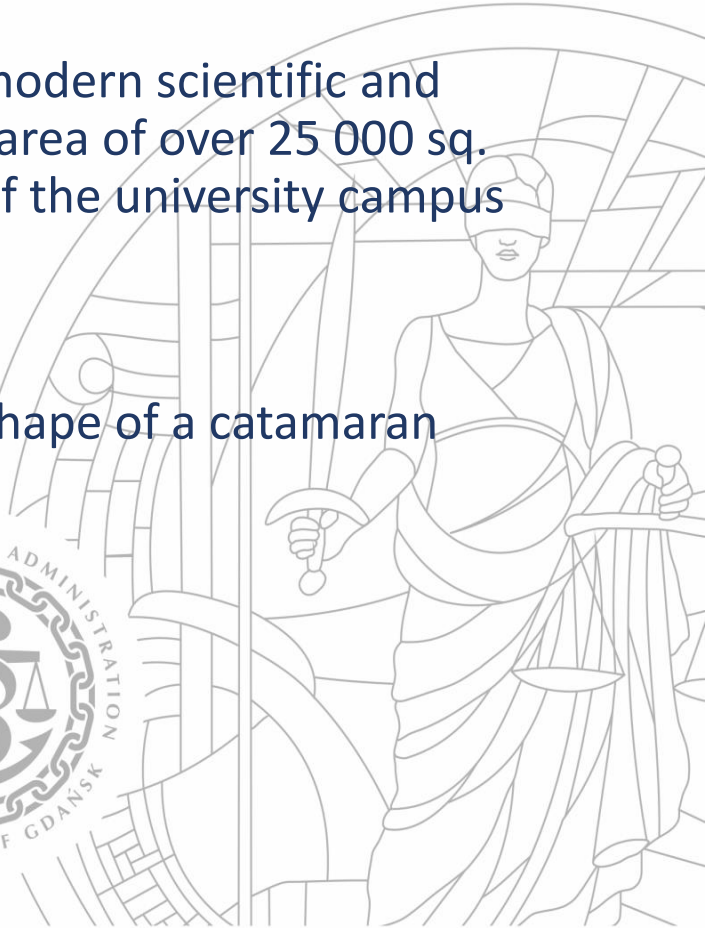

FACULTY OF LAW AND ADMINISTRATION

Department facilities

The Faculty building is a modern scientific and didactic complex with an area of over 25 000 sq. m. located in the centre of the university campus in Gdańsk - Oliwa

A unique building in the shape of a catamaran

FACULTY OF LAW AND ADMINISTRATION

Research staff

The highest standard of teaching is ensured by an excellent teaching staff of over 140 academic teachers

They are distinguished representatives of the world of science, including lawyers - practitioners: former and current judges, attorneys-at-law, legal advisers, ministers and experts of the parliament

The Faculty of Law and Administration in numbers

- Over 50 years experience of teaching law
- Around 3400 students
- 140 academic teachers
- Nearly a 1000 publications each year
- 2 courtrooms equipped to simulate real courts of law
- 1 Museum of Criminalistics
- 1 University of Gdansk Law Library in faculty building with 28 workstations

Full-time studies

- Administration (3 + 2 years)
 - Criminology (3 + 2 years)
 - Taxation and tax consultancy (3 + 2 years)
 - Law (5 years)
 - Law in administration and business (2 years)
- Completly in English:
- Criminology and criminal justice (3 + 2 years)

School of International And Advanced Problems of Private Law Lecturers

- Course 1: FOOD, HEALTH AND WORK – EUROPEAN REGULATION AND PRACTICE (including: Food Law, European Labor Law and Medical Care) (6 ECTS)
- Course 2: THE FUTURE AWAITS – MODERN TECHNOLOGY LAW (including: Artificial Intelligence and Cybersecurity)
- Course 3: CHALLENGES OF INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW (including: Social Media, Patents, Industrial Designs, Trademark Regulations and Copyright in practice)
- Course 4: CONTEMPORARY INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION AND LITIGATION (6 ECTS)
- Course 5: MODERN, ADVANCED PROBLEMS OF PRIVATE LAW

FACULTY OF LAW AND ADMINISTRATION

Museum of Criminalistics

The Department houses a forensic laboratory and museum that is unique in the country

history of criminalistics uniforms and police symbolism forensic collection of weapons

crime technology

criminal archaeology

Faculty of Law and Administration

Thank you for your attention!

dr Michał Szypniewski

mgr Dawid Marko

University of Gdańsk

