

Dr. OLENA NIHREIEVA, Associate Professor in International Law at the Faculty of Economics and Law of Odesa I. I. Mechnikov National University (Ukraine), Lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the University of Cadiz (Spain).

The courses she has delivered throughout her career in English and Ukrainian are Public International Law, EU Law, International Internet Law (International Regulation of Cryptoassets Activities included) and Maritime Law. Among other activities, she has got experience as a Vice-Dean for Research and has worked as an Executive Secretary of the scientific journal “Odesa National University Herald. Series: Jurisprudence”. Recently she has delivered courses as a Visiting Professor at the University of Cadiz, Spain (2022-2024), the University of Bologna, Italy (2022) and the University of Foggia, Italy (2022). Besides, she has participated in many international conferences and other scientific events in Spain, Italy, Lithuania, Ukraine, etc. Her research currently focuses on the issues relating to International Humanitarian Law and International Internet Law. Other fields of her scientific interest are international lawmaking and enforcement, in particular within the field of International Economic Law. She has also conducted studies of Maritime Law and her PhD thesis is dedicated to Legal Regulation of Ship Mortgage. She has been publishing in English and Ukrainian.

Dr. MICHEL REMI NJIKI, Senior Lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the University of Cadiz.

He has been a Visiting Professor at the Southern Federal University of Rostov-on-Don (Russia) at the State University Zhetysu (I. Zhanzugurov) of Kazakhstan. He has been a Visiting Research Fellow at Faculty of Law in Oxford Law, the James E. Rodgers College of Law of the University of Arizona (USA), at the Center for Migration Law of the Radboud University in the Netherlands and at the European Commission Library in Brussels. Michel Remi teaches a wide range of courses at the graduate and undergraduate level in English and taught specialised academic seminars at the University of the Aegean in Greece, at the University of Pisa in Italy, and the University of Siegen in Germany. His research interest mainly focuses, among others, on international peace and security. Michel is member of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence on ‘Immigration and Human Rights at the European External Borders’ at the University of Cadiz. Since 2005, he has been a member of the International and European Studies Group of the University of Cadiz. He was awarded the Extraordinary Doctorate Award in 2016 and in 2019 the XIII Andalusian Award in European integration studies.

Dr. LORENA CALVO MARISCAL, Lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the University of Cadiz. She has a doctorate in Public International Law and EU Law at the University of Cadiz. She is a Research Member of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence “Migration and Human Rights in Europe’s External Borders” and the SEA-EU Observatory for Migration and Human Rights. She is a lecturer on the master’s degree in international relations and Migrations of the University of Cadiz, in Borders and Migration, Asylum and Refugee Law and Human Rights courses. Her recent publications address the European Union's externalization of border controls and migration and asylum management through cooperation with third States.

Ms. CRISTINA CASTILLA CID, Lecturer in Public International Law and EU Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of Cadiz.

She holds a Degree in Law and a Master Degree in International Relations and African Studies, both at Autonomous University Madrid. She is also a Research Member of the Research Group "Centro de Estudios Internacionales y Europeos del Área del Estrecho" of the Andalusian Research Plan, directed by Dr. Alejandro del Valle Gálvez. She is currently a PhD candidate in Public International Law and International Relations at the University of Cadiz.

Mr. ENRIQUE DEL ÁLAMO MARCHENA, Researcher at the Faculty of Law of the University of Cadiz.

He holds a bachelor's degree in law from the University of Cádiz and two Masters: Master's Degree in Law (University of Granada) and Master's Degree in International Relations and Migrations (University of Cádiz). He is a Research Member of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence "Migration and Human Rights in Europe's External Borders" (2017-2021), directed by Dr Alejandro del Valle Gálvez. Ms. Enrique del Álamo is also Research Member of the Research Group "Centro de Estudios Internacionales y Europeos del Área del Estrecho" of the Andalusian Research Plan, directed by Dr. Alejandro del Valle Gálvez. He is currently a PhD candidate in Public International Law and International Relations at the University of Cadiz.

Ms. MARÍA DE LOS ÁNGELES BELLIDO LORA, Researcher at the Faculty of Law of the University of Cadiz.

She is currently a PhD candidate in Public International Law and International Relations at the University of Cadiz. She holds a Double Bachelor's Degree in Law and Business Administration from the University of Cádiz and a Master's Degree in International Relations and Migrations from the University of Cádiz. She also holds a Master's degree in International Law from the University of Malta. She is a Research Member of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence "Migration and Human Rights in Europe's External Borders" (2017-2021), directed by Dr Alejandro del Valle Gálvez. Ms. Bellido is also a Research Member of the Research Group "Centro de Estudios Internacionales y Europeos del Área del Estrecho" of the Andalusian Research Plan, directed by Dr. Alejandro del Valle Gálvez. Her research interests focus on migration studies and the Law of the Sea, especially on search and rescue operations at sea. She also shares research interests in human rights, Spanish-Moroccan relations and the Western Sahara conflict.