TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Erasmus+ KA171 SMS IN programme (incoming student mobility for study purposes) offers students from non-associated third country partner universities the possibility to carry out a study stay at the Universities of Huelva, Las Palmas de Gran Canarias, La Laguna, and Cadiz (hereinafter Consortium LiderAfrica) during the academic year 2025-2026.

Beneficiary students will be exempted from tuition fees and will be able to use the LiderAfrica Consortium's facilities without additional costs for the duration of their study stay (excluding services whose fees are also applicable to LiderAfrica Consortium students). In addition, selected students will receive an Erasmus+ grant to cover travel and subsistence costs, subject to funding availability. (see Annex VI).

The home universities beneficiaries, on the other hand, must recognise the totality of the study activities approved in the Learning Agreement and satisfactorily completed in the LiderAfrica Consortium.

The application for participation, both by the partner university and by the students in this call for applications, implies acceptance of the content of these rules.

1. GENERAL STUDENT ADMISSIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- To be enrolled in Bachelor, Master or Doctorate studies in one of the African partner universities of the LiderAfrica Consortium within the framework of the Erasmus+ KA171 programme (see Annex I), both at the time of application and during the stay.
- To be pre-selected and nominated by the home university.
- Not to have participated in the Erasmus+ programme in the same study cycle (Bachelor/Master/Doctorate) for more than 9 months.
- For undergraduate students: to certify a B1 level or higher of Spanish according to the levels established in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). The level of Spanish may be certified by means of the Diploma de Español como Lengua Extranjera (DELE) of the Instituto Cervantes

For students who cannot provide a DELE certificate but believe they meet the B1 CEFR level, the Consortium universities may offer alternative assessment methods, in accordance with the procedure they will have specified.

Exceptionally, Master's and PhD students who are only going to carry out a research stay may present a certificate of English and/or French (minimum level B1). This accreditation must correspond to any of those included in the list of acceptable accreditations published by each of the universities of the Consortium.

However, this application will not be prioritised, and its eligibility will be contingent upon obtaining a letter of invitation (Annex IV) signed by a professor at the host university who agrees to supervise research activities in that language.

Students whose co-official language or language of instruction is Spanish do not have to present any accreditation of Spanish. Students whose co-official language or language of instruction is English or French are also not required to present accreditations in these languages (PhD and Master students).

2. PRE-SELECTION AND NOMINATION OF STUDENTS BY THE PARTNER UNIVERSITY

2.1. PRE-SELECTION

The entire pre-selection process at the home university will comply with the criteria of publicness, transparency and equal opportunities for applicants.

In order for the LiderAfrica Consortium Evaluation Commission to assess the suitability of the student's profile, the scale must include the following criteria:

The list of selected/nominated applicants, as well as those in reserve list, must be published in the home university institutional media (physical or virtual notice board, webpage, social media, etc.). In the case of not covering all the places, the LiderAfrica Consortium will proceed to evaluate the reserve list of each university.

8. PROMOTING GENDER EQUALITY, INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY POLICIES

The Erasmus+ Programme aims to promote equal opportunities and access, inclusion, diversity and equity in all its actions. green travel in all possible situations for the students' travel from their country of origin to the University of destination (ferry, train, bus).

11. DATA PROTECTION

In compliance with article 11 of Organic Law 5/2018, of 5 December, on the Protection of Personal Data and guarantee of digital rights, which regulates the right to information in the collection of data, you are informed that your personal data will be processed by the University of Cadiz and the host university in their capacity as data controllers for the purpose of administrative management and enrolment of students, teachers and administrative and service staff for mobility programmes with foreign universities or companies.
